Mrs. Sam W. McKee Dead

Mrs. Sam W. McKee died at the family home in Dial last Thursday after a very short illness, death being caused by a congestive chill.

The remains were buried in Oakwood cemetery Friday afternoon, the funeral services being held in the chapel and were conducted by Rev. Bennett, pastor of the C. P. Church at Ladonia.

Mrs. McKee was a daughter of Uncle Sydney Price, for many years a respected and esteemed farmer living near Dial, but who now lives at Petty, and whose wife died just two weeks ago. Mrs. McKee was thirty-three years of age, and the mother of four children, one a babe only a few weeks old. She was one of the very best of women, whose Chirstian life was a help and an inspiration to all about her. Her life was a blessing to her family and her friends, and it seems hard that she should have been taken in the flower of her young womanhood.
