Mrs. E. E. Blair Died Suddenly Today

Mrs. E. E. Blair, known in her home community as "Aunt Betty" died suddenly this morning at her home in Lamasco. She made a fire around a pot in the yard and was preparing to do some washing when she was stricken.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at the Carson cemetery.

Mrs. Blair was a long time resident of the community, and was one of its most beloved members. She was about seventy or seventy-five years of age. Her husband, E. E. Blair, well known in the county, died more than twenty years ago. He was a brother to Frank and George Blair both formerly of this city.
