OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Spring seems to have come early this year, and with it new resolve to complete the unfinished projects of last year. Isn't it wonderful how warm weather and sunshine can make you want to get out and read cemetery stones! And what a thrill it is to find a new clue or even a new way to look at an old one. We hope you will do just that within these pages.

And doesn't spring make you think of traveling? Here are some opportunities to learn more about our hobby while enjoying the company of other enthusiasts for the same.

The Benton County Tennessee Genealogical Society will sponsor a week-end of fun and memories in their "Living History of the Civil War in Benton County". On April 24 from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and April 25 from 9:00 to 5:00 the 27th Tennessee Infantry Reenactment Group will make it all come to life. For more information write or call Raymond Lindsay, 198 Forrest Ave., Camden, TN 38320, (901) 584-3840.

The 1992 National Genealogical Society Conference in the States will be held this time in Jacksonville, Florida and hosted by that local society. It will also be the Second International Congress on Family History and enjoys the participation of ten prestigious state, national and international groups. From 29 April to 2 May 1992 there will be classes, exhibits and entertainment celebrating the 500th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America. For a full program and information write or FAX 1992 NGS Conference, 4527 17th St. No., Arlington, VA 22207-2399, FAX (703) 525-0052.

Council of Genealogy Columnists, one of the ten sponsors of the NGS Conference, will hold a workshop at the Conference for the first time. They invite not only current columnists, but also anyone who would like to write a column in a local area.

The Rader Reunion offers lectures on more than the one family's history. The event on 27 June 1992 will be held in Greenville, Greene Co., Tennessee. This location was chosen not only because early Raders lived there, but also because most migration to the west passed through the area. The speakers and authors who have been invited are specialists in southwest Virginia, Pennsylvania and Greene County. Contact Jim Rader, 2633 Gilbert Way, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670-3513, (916) 366-6833 for details.

Fentress County, Tennessee is hosting its Annual Fentress County History Week April 19 - 25, with the grand finale to be "Round-Up" Saturday at York Institute in Jamestown. Speakers will include Barbara Cook from the McClung Library in Knoxville, whose topic is "Family Mystery to Family History - Resources Available in the McClung Collection". LETTERS FROM TEXAS IN 1859 - 1860

Contributed by Verna Baker Banes
120 Elmwood, Huntsville TX 77340

Robert Young VAUGHAN, son of Thomas and Leah M. McCARTY Vaughan, and brother of Sarah Elizabeth CANTRELL, wife of Reynolds CANTRELL, moved from McMinn Co TN, to Hays Co TX, in 1859. The Vaughan family was listed as Tennesseans living in McLennan Co TX in "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS, Vol. 12, p. 67, 1965. The following letters, undated, were written by Robert and Angeline Vaughan to his sister and brother-in-law in TN. They reflect the unique and picturesque language of the frontier.

"We have had winter for a month with scarcely a warm day notwithstanding we are living way down in the sunny South the stock looks fine considering the cold weather the range looks at present pretty slim the dead grass on the prairies is very short to what I expected to see it I was looking to see the grass about waist high but it will not average half knee high but the settlers say it will last all ways as it has been a stock country for centuries and will continue [Bees] are very plenty both wild and tame Billy found a tree last season that had two bushel and three pecks of honey in it I have not found any by blowing in the trees yet have blowed in several they prevent the moth from hurting them by making a tight gum and head up both ends & make a hole three or four inches from the top and put in a spile with a hole in it 3/4 of an inch in diameter the honey is very clean and good I will have you & Milton a gum apice by the time you get here in the fall my respects to all enquiring friends and any of them that will write will hear from Robt Y Vaughan San Marcos"

"I have written to you on several occasions but never under so painful circumstances as at present I have opposed secession from the beginning & ever expect to oppose it on the other hand I have opposed northern abolitionism to the same extent & ever expect to but it seems that the two extremes have got together & have decided that the government shall be broken up The best government that has ever existed or ever will again They may talk about the great Southern Confederacy. the very name I despise for it smells to strong of sham democracy it is the very quintessence of that organization seperate from all the good it ever possessed. . . . I have opposed a war between the United States & the seceded because it is just carrying out the plans & schemes of the scamps that they might drag all the southern states in the slavery issue for I tell you that the slavery question is not the issue so help me God time will prove that I am correct. . . . I stand as I have always stood for the union friends and relatives may join the secession movement. I will NEVER & to show you I am in earnest I never expect to claim citizenship or vote in the seceded southern confederacy unless it presents a different face to what it has presented yet. I am as proud of being a citizen of the United States, as ever a Roman was of being a Roman Citizen. . . . For the last few weeks I have regretted very much that I ever left Tenn. We are all in fine health Uncle Jeff & mysellf have taken charge of the stock that Billy has been keeping they are broke to the range & are but little trouble to attend to Puss and T___ are doing fine how long I shall remain in Tex is uncertain As soon as I become reconciled to one thing & conclude to stay---something els goes wrong & I become dissatisfied Angeline & the children join me in sending respects to you & the children also & all the kinfolk
Respectfully _____ Vaughan"

Written at the same time as the first letter [paper and pencil the same] is the following wonderfully descriptive and informative one by Robert Y. Vaughan's wife, Angeline:

"Sarah as Robert has said nothing about our house or neighbors I will add a few lines We live in a double log house with a passage between a stone chimney at one end. glass windows in both houses. a small kitchen with a stone chimney and a passage between it and one of the houses, so that I can go from one to the other without going out the houses are ceiled overhead with canvass which Thomas calls the quilt lining We live on the main stage road leading from Houston to San Antonio and one mile and a half of San Marcos it is the most public road I ever saw you can hardly ever look out without seeing a buggy or wagon or some person rideing there are more buggys in this country than I ever saw any where. The stage passes every day filled with passengers and frequently four or five on top Our nearest neighbor is a German by the name of Otenhouser. We use water out of the same spring. I think they are a clever people. the greatest difficulty is for me to understand their English. Mrs Otenhous says she can learn me dutch Mr. Burleson lives one mil from us they are our next nearest neighbors. Mr. Dixon lives a mile and a half on the other side of us I want to hear from you all so bad you must write as soon as you get this we have got but one letter since we left home I will do better next time Reynolds I know if you try to read this you will get mad. I can hardly read it"

Letter written by Martha Angeline TRIPLET VAUGHAN August 26, 1860, from Hays Co Texas

"As Robert is writing to Reynolds today I will drop in a few words for you Sarah. Although I may fail to interest you as my stock of news is generally made up at home where I stay all the time and do not have many visitors, though we had one this week that was more disgusting than pleasing she came four times during this one week and stayed two nights. I will explain Wm McCarty was up at meeting two weeks ago and attracted her so much that she wishes to be very friendly with us on his account. he paid no attention to her whatever but she has no sense at all about such things. she is one of the kind that cant keep a story straight in carying it a mile. We can hardly put up with her. . . . Had I have known every thing I do now she would have stayed in Lockhart although she is company for me but I dont like to wait on any body so long for company's sake. She talks like she can ask her Pa do anything she wishes. one thing I know she is a pretty good drain on his pocket and I dont believe he will ever mary her off to make the money back. Sarah I am talking to you as I am not afraid to say what I think Uncle Jeff is very much attached to her writes to her often when she gets a letter we never know whether he is well or not unless we ask her I dont know her reasons for keeping every thing secret but she is strictly so [new page]

Our old German lady Mrs. Otterhouser got her foot badly cut last week by her boy letting a hatchet fall on it Robert helped binde it up She said if she had not held it together with her hands she would have 'bleed to die' the artery was cut the old man milks and churns. they milk about 20 cows and have more besides they churn in a little jar that holds about a gallon without a lid, and sell lots of butter. I would hate to eat it they put butter away in the summer for winter. hold your nose if you go near it as it tells its own story. the old lady says 'it be mighty gude in de winther.' Some people put it away in brine and say it keeps fresh and good. they put butter in sacks and make the brine like you for cucumbers and keep them under and out of the air they say it will keep untill Spring perfectly fresh & good. You see I am hard run for something to write. as usual the children are telling me what to write for them. Thomas says tell Clay and Ena that he has a book and can spell some John wants Mack to send him some Aples I intended going last week to Col Tyler after peaches but failed I will go this week, Will McCarty says thier peaches never ripe when visitors go, but I will tell them I can put up with green ones and have some any how. It rained the hardest last Wednesday I ever saw in Texas, been cloudy and showery ever since and is raining now so dark I can hardly see. I received a letter from Mary yesterday. Mother better. I am so glad to hear it. hope she will get up again. Has Appy changed his address, if so tell us, we cant hear from him I think Tiny has given out writing me that letter, she must write it soon You must write as often as you can letter comes in the place of a visit, always tell me what you want to know about this country then I can answer it, I would love to have you here. I would then have friends I could rely upon. Give my love to all

Your sister, Angeline [actually sister-in-law]"

Ms Banes added in her cover letter that the Robert Young VAUGHAN family returned to TN in 1861. He ran a flour mill in Polk Co, and worked for the Construction Corps of the Union Army. She wrote, "Those were sad days, for Tennessee was one of the States whose loyalties were divided by the War, where brother fought brother, neighbor killed neighbor. Tennessee was the last State to secede from the Union. When two of Andrews Raiders escaped from a Confederate prison, Robert Y. hid them in a mountain cave outside Athens, TN. This could possibly have cost him his life if he'd been caught aiding the Union enemy. He took them food for three days and nights." In August 1872, Robert petitioned for the price of a horse and saddle furnished to Capt. Dave Beaty's Co. in December 1863. His claim was denied. The really sad note is that his wife's brother, Joel TRIPLETT, Jr. died during the Civil War while serving with the Confederate Troops. In the late 1870s the Robert Vaughan family moved back to Texas to McLennan Co, where Robert and Angeline both died.

Thomas VAUGHAN md Leah McCARTY, they had four children:

D - Died	MIL - Military Service	GRPTS - Grandparents
M - Married	PTS - Parents	GGPTS - Great Grandparents

CARROLL COUNTY, TENNESSEE - 1836 MAP OF CIVIL DISTRICTS

CARROLL COUNTY, TENNESSEE 1836 TAX LIST
 Transcribed from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm, Tax Lists Roll NO. 2 and photocopy of the Commissioners' Report

Abbreviations: DIST. = District, A = Acres, TL = Town Lot, S = Slave, W = White Poll, and DT = Double Tax, "...not having given in on time according to Law."

Carroll County is one of the original counties formed in 1821 from the Western District; it has changed boundaries very little, although a slight adjustment in the northwest corner now puts some land in Weakley County. Thomas HAMILTON, John KILLOUGH, T F ELLIN and Stephen EASON were appointed Commissioners to divide the county into Civil Districts & establish election sites. They completed their report 22 Jan 1836, giving the descriptions of boundaries as follows:

DIST. No. 1 Begins at the southwest corner of the county, runs east with the south boundary of the same to the corner on the west boundary of Henderson County, thence north with the said line to the northwest corner on the line dividing the 9th and 12th Surveyors Districts, thence west with said line to the stage road leading from Huntingdon to Jackson, thence north with said road to RUTHERFORD's Fork of the Obion River, thence down said river to the west boundary of the county, thence south to the beginning. Elections will be held at Sallathiel SHEROD's Sr.

PETITIONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF TENNESSEE

18-2-1799 "The remonstrance of Martin ARMSTRONG, entry taker of the lands reserved for the Officers and soldiers of the Continental line, of the State of North Carolina, Shewith That being perfectly acquainted with the decayed state of the old books in the Military land office at Nashville, thinks it a duty incumbent on him to make the same known to your Honourable body, so that in your wisdom such ways and means May be put in practice for the preservation of such valuable records: being the chief evidence of the landed property of the citizens of Mero District etc. The State of North Carolina / by their agents / have lately taken a transcript of said Books, by which, they are very much impared, together with constant searching, will soon render them useless, and in many places, not fit to appear as evidence in any court of record." (1 page)

19-2-1799 Petition of Thomas RUTHERFORD, goalar [jailor] for the County of Davidson, states that John FALLIN was put in jail on a suspiceon of Felony and remained in jail until 8 May 1799 when he was removed "agreeable to an Act of Congress respecting Fugitives from Justice & Persons escaping from the Service of their Masters." He asks for payment of the fees due him as jailor because the existing law does not make a provision for payment of such fees; he believes an increase in fees is needed. 21 Sep 1799 (3 pages)

20-2-1799 James STUART, one of the heirs of John Stuart, dec'd, his father, inherited lands in Robertson County. Previous to the heir's coming of age the widow remarried. Her husband took possession of one 320 A tract which he rents out and receives the profits for himself; James presumed that he paid the taxes, and he did not report the 320 A with his other lands, so now he owes a fine. James Stuart wants relief from the fine. 19 Sep 1799 (2 pages)

21-2-1799 Petition of sundry citizens of Nashville to pass a Law for the building of a Market house on the Public Square and regulation of said Market. Signers were: 21 Sep 1799 (3 pages)

property in Davidson Co for 1798 & 1799 by the given time and requests relief. 20 Sep 1799 (2 pages)

24-2-1799 Memorial of David CAMPBELL, a Judge of the Superior Court, regrets the delays in suits both in Courts of Law and the Courts of Equity and suggests lengthening the sessions, a change which must come from the General Assembly.
Doctor DIXON, Speaker of H. Rep. (4 pages)

25-2-1799 "The Grand Jury for the District of Hamilton" contend that the Law passed in the last session of Congress called the "Alien Law is unconstitutional ...". Also the Sedition Act, passed at the same time, "cramps the press and privileges of a FREE and Republican people." They want the Tennessee Legislature to draw up a Memorial to be issued before the members of Congress to rescind the above Acts. Signers were: 6 Dec 1798 (2 pages)

26-2-1799 The subscribers below object to the law passed "that no attorney should be admitted to practice in any of the courts of this commonwealth unless he shall have previously resided twelve months within the limits of this State." They consider this law "unpolitic" as its tendency is to prevent the emigration of attorneys from other states... They believe that no other State of the Union has at present any such law in force. Upon hearing of the Tennessee law, Kentucky passed a law that Tennessee attorney's are prohibited from practicing there unless previously residing one year until Tennessee repealed the above law. 27-2-1799 "The Petition of Remonstrance of a number of inhabitants of the upper end of Sumner County eastwardly of Rockey Creek..." They think that the area east of Rocky Creek should be formed into a new county extending from the Kentucky line to the Cumberland River. This petition seems to use the same wording as one printed in this magazine, Vol. 9, No. 1 - 1962, but the names attached here are not the same as those on the previous petition. Many of the names below appear to be written by the same hand, especially when the surnames are the same.

STAGE COACH ROUTES TO TENNESSEE - 1835

The ways and means of travel in pioneer days are frequently a matter of speculation, but the publication of books which were intended to prepare the pioneer travellers and emigrants also gives a graphic picture to the current researcher. "So this is the way Grandpa came from Carolina to Weakley County" one might imagine.

One such book, owned by Mrs. E. L. Ashford of Collierville, Tennessee, was called to our attention by Mrs. James M. Russell, also of Collierville. It was published in Philadelphia by Mitchell and Hinman in 1835 and is titled An Accompaniment to Mitchell's Reference and Distance Map of the United States. Its sub-title announces that it gives an index of rivers, a general view of the United States and its territories, and accounts of "the actual and prospective internal improvements throughout the union".

The Tennessee section of this early atlas begins with a historical account of the state and continues with its geographical features; all seem to be geared to attracting emigrants. "The principal rivers are Mississippi, Tennessee, Cumberland, Clinch, Duck, Holston, French Broad, Nolichucky, Hiwassee, Tellico, Reelfoot, Obion, Forked Deer, Wolf, and Elk river." Names of the rivers are followed by a general description of the land elevation, scenery, geological formation, minerals and soil conditions. "The state also abounds with medicinal plants such as snake-root, ginseng, Carolina pink, angelica, senna, annise, spikenard, etc. Tennessee is also well supplied with animals and birds of various kinds, and the rivers abound with divers sorts of fish."

"The climate is generally healthful. In East Tennessee, the heat is so tempered by the mountain air on one side, and by refreshing breezes from the Gulf of Mexico on the other that this part of the State has one of the most desirable climates in North America... The winter in Tennessee resembles the spring in New England. Snow seldom falls to a greater depth than 10 inches, or lies longer than 10 days. Cumberland river has been frozen over but three times since the country was settled. Cattle are rarely sheltered in winter".

If the description of the weather sounds like a Chamber of Commerce brochure, the next sentence will burst that balloon. "In the western parts there are some low bottoms on which the inhabitants are subject to bilious fevers, and fever and ague in the autumn." That statement, however, would not discourage many emigrants because it was followed by a glowing account of the business of agriculture.

Facilities for education were not ignored in this inventory of Tennessee virtues. "Nashville University, at Nashville, is a respectable institution, with considerable endowments. East Tennessee College is at Knoxville. Greenville College, the oldest in the State, is at Greenville; and there is a theological school at Maryville."

The increase in Tennessee's population, based on the 1830 census, gives evidence that emigrants were flocking to the rich agricultural areas. A chart of the counties, their county seats and population shows the Middle Tennessee counties to be most heavily settled. Population figures give Bedford 30,386, Davidson 28,122, Maury 27,665, Rutherford 26,134, Williamson 26,638, Wilson 25,472 and Lincoln 22,075. The older East Tennessee counties ranged from 5,000 to 13,000 and the not-yet-10-year old counties of West Tennessee from 1,900 to 11,000.

The 1835 report of so-called "improvements" tells the traveller what may be expected as a means of transportation.

"Internal improvements in Tennessee are as yet merely prospective. Surveys have been made under a late appropriation of Congress with a view to the improvement of the navigation of the Tennessee river. Others have been made to ascertain the practicability of effecting a navigable communication between the headwaters of the Hiwassee and Savannah rivers, and also between the Tennessee and Coosa, by the valleys of Lookout and Wills' creeks, and by those of the Chickamauga and Little rivers. It is also proposed to connect the Hiwassee river with the headwaters of the Connesauga, the most northern branch of the Coosa; from whence, by the improvement of the river channels and a series of railroads, a communication is intended to be completed to the waters of the Gulf of Mexico at Mobile".

"A railroad from Jackson, in Madison County, to Memphis, on the Mississippi river, is intended to be commenced in a short period, and is regarded as a work that will add much to the convenience of the western part of the State".

With canals and railroads still in the planning stage, and airports yet undreamed-of, only the overland roads and trails were left to guide the emigrants and travellers. Eighteen different Stage Coach Routes were given in the Mitchell & Hinman book. They are printed in chart form, showing the distance between each stop and the accumulated mileage from the beginning point. The routes are as follows:

Of course the early coach roads have been superceded by modern highways and expressways, but detailed county maps still may mark some twisted rural roads as "Old Stage Road". Some of the stops were county seats and post offices; others were residences or taverns, "ordinaries" sometimes called "places of entertainment". Many of these have disappeared from current atlases and road maps, and new counties and county seats have been created, making the recreation of the journey difficult to follow. But, by using the Tennessee Gazeteer - 1834, written by Eastin Morris and edited and copyrighted in 1971 by Robert M. McBride, Nashville, Tennessee, one may compare and fill in some gaps. Tennessee County Maps, by C. J. Puetz, Puetz Place, Lyndon Station, WI 53944 names many rural roads and communities which help to identify the early routes. Additional information from these two sources may be applied to the routes given above. Place names not given on some current road maps are:

- Route #1 - Good Spring, one of the seven post offices in Williamson Co in 1834. "A good McAdamized turnpike road has lately been completed between Franklin and Nashville." Probably now US Highway 31 and 43
- Route #2 - Mount View, "A post office in Davidson County 13 miles from Nashville on the road leading to Murfreesboro" US 41 on the Puetz map
Hazle Green and Meridianville are in Alabama on US 431 near Tennessee
- Route #4 - Chestnut Grove, "a post office in Davidson County (formerly called Joslin's) seven miles from Nashville...discontinued as a post office by 1971"
Reynoldsburg, "a post town...on the east bank of the Tennessee River...located in 1812". Formerly the county seat of Humphreys County, it was situated near New Johnsonville and is now under the waters of Kentucky Lake
Middleburg, "a post town in Hardeman County on Pleasant Run S.W. of Bolivar...between Bolivar and Hickory Valley." The stage road to Somerville would now lead to Newcastle over county roads and westward into Somerville where it would join present US 64
Morning Sun, not listed by Morris or Puetz, but known to be a community on the eastern edge of Shelby County near present Morning Sun Cemetery
Raleigh, at one time the County Seat, but now a part of Memphis
- Route #5 - Cullen, no reference given, but the distance between Paris and Dresden suggests it was near present Como and the line between Henry and Weakley County
Mill's Point is now Hickman, Kentucky
- Route #6 - Campbell's Station, "a post office in Knox County fifteen miles west of Knoxville, on the Nashville road - here is a store, two taverns and a stage office..." The 1971 notes add "the community of Lovell..." between I 40 and US 70
Salem, "A post town in Franklin County, ninety-four miles S.E. from Nashville, at the crossing of Bean's Creek, on the Huntsville Road..." Puetz shows on US 64 at State 122, north of the settlement of Bean's Creek
- Route #7 - Danville, originally the name of Woodbury, present county seat of Cannon County which was established in 1836, after publication of the Gazetteer
Jefferson, "a post town in Rutherford County, in the forks of Stone's River, twenty miles southeast from Nashville. "Jefferson was the original county seat and the community still exists, but it is served by the Smyrna post office
- Route #8 - Allen's Ferry, there is an Allen Ferry Road in DeKalb County north of US 70 which dead ends at the Caney Fork River near the mouth of Falling Water River
- Route #9 - Shoun's Cross Roads, located in Johnson County where US 421 and State 167 cross, it was named for Leonard Shoun (1773-1841)
Wood's Ferry, "a post office in Greene County---" probably across the Nolichucky River
- Route #10- Washington, "The seat of justice of Rhea County, situated on the west bank of Tennessee River...established 1809". On current maps it is located on State 30 and called "Old Washington". Dayton is now the county seat
Mount Airy, located on US 127 in Sequatchie County, at the Bledsoe line
Delphi, "a post town in Marion County on Farmer's Creek on the road from Pikeville to Jasper". Delphi is now in Sequatchie County, formed in 1857
Bellefonte, Alabama, no longer listed in the telephone directory
Woodsville, north of US 72 on Alabama 36

- Route #11 - New Philadelphia, listed as Philadelphia in Loudon County
- Route #12 - Warm Springs, now called Hot Springs, NC
- Route #13 - Milledgeville, "A post office in White County,, ten miles west from Sparta...discontinued." State 136, which crosses US 70 about 5 miles west of Sparta is called "Old Kentucky Road" by Puetz McLeansville, "a post town in Jackson County, seventy-seven miles east from Nashville."
- Route #14 - Mount Richardson, "a post office in Jackson County" possibly in the area of Cookeville. Putnam County was not formed until 1854
Cairo, a post town in Sumner, situated on the north bank of Cumberland River, about three-quarters of a mile below the mouth of Bledsoe's Creek
- Route #15 - Durhamsville, "a post office at the house of Thomas Durham, Esq. on the road from Fulton to Brownsville...It is near the western boundary line of Tipton (should be Haywood - Ed.) county, in a fine neighborhood."
Fulton refers to a town at the First Chickasaw Bluff on the east bank of the Mississippi River
Randolph, a post town in Tipton County, established in 1827 on the east bank of the Mississippi at the Second Chickasaw Bluff
- Route #16 - Cheek's Cross Roads, "a post office in Hawkins County", now discontinued
- Route #18 - Purdy, "a post town and the seat of justice of McNairy county...on the waters of Snake Creek near the center of the county." Purdy has been superceded by Selmer as the county seat

These are only a few of the routes recorded in Mitchell and Hinman's 1835 publication. Doubtless the sections pertaining to adjoining states of Tennessee had more routes which originated from more distant points and ended in a Tennessee city, but these eighteen given for Tennessee are enough to arouse curocity and feed imagination as to the rigors of travel for our pioneer ancestors. "So that's why Grandpa had a son born in Alabama".

OBITUARIES FROM THE MINUTES OF THE TENNESSEE CONFERENCE, UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Held at Hunstville, Alabama, October 8 - 16, 1856

Asaph H. Alsup was born in Wilson County, Tennessee December 17, 1826. He professed our holy religion, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South under the ministry of the Rev. Joseph Willis at Oak Grove Church in his native county in August 1848. He was admitted on trial in the Tennessee Annual Conference and appointed to the Dover Circuit in 1850. In 1851 he was appointed to Mount Pleasant Circuit. In 1852 he was admitted into full connection and was appointed deacon, and was appointed to Clarksville Circuit. In 1853 he was ordained elder and appointed to Montgomery Circuit. During this year he married Miss Martha Manson, who within a few short months was stricken down by death. In 1855, though much enfeebled in health and afflicted in spirit, he again took work and was appointed to Franklin Station. During the spring of 1856, the disease, being of a pulmonary character, grew worse so rapidly that he was compelled to desist from his labors and retire to his native home. There he died in great peace on the 31st of August following. Brother Alsup was a high-toned Christian and an excellent preacher. Those who knew him best loved him most. He lived a pious and useful life, and died a triumphant death. He is not lost, but gone before.

INDEX TO PROBATE RECORDS IN MEMPHIS/SHELBY COUNTY, TENNESSEE ARCHIVES

The Index to Probate Records in Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives includes the names of Deceased, Administrators, Executors, Guardians, relatives, persons of the same surname, witnesses to wills and persons or places of special interest. Some estates contain many more names, such as lists of persons who purchased at a sale. These are not included in the index. The ID (Identification) column indicates the relationship of that person to the deceased. Besides the normal abbreviations, two additional ones were used: frmly = formerly and decd = alternate spelling of deceased surname. See Vol. 36, No 3, 1989, page 105 for photocopy information; the address for the Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives is 33 South Front Street, Memphis, TN 38103.

1819 LEDGER FROM JEFFERSON, RUTHERFORD COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Abstracted from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm, Roll No. 115

The first twenty-two pages of Dyer County, Tennessee Deed Book B contain a merchant's account ledger. No name is given for the business, but each page is headed "Jefferson" and dated 1819. The first line of each page lists an "Amount Brought forward" which appears to be a total of the merchant's accounts receivable. He may have just recently started his business, because the first page, dated 1 Jan 1819, records only $45.97 brought forward. By January 7th the Accounts Receivable totaled $222.50.

A comparison of names found in the ledger with those of the 1820 census indicated that the business was located in Rutherford County, probably in the town of Jefferson. Only the names of the customers and the dates of their first and last purchases are extracted, but a study of the items and their prices gives insight into life in those days. Occasionally the merchant was requested to pay a third party; this name and date are noted. Although only two months are covered by this record, it places these individuals in Rutherford County at that time, even if they were only passing through.

THOMAS REYNOLDS - WAR OF 1812

Contributed by Bess C. Twaddle (Mrs. Roy)

Thomas Reynolds was mustered into Capt. William Russell's Company of Tennessee Vol. Mounted Gunmen, Major William Russell's Separate Battalion on September 28, 1814 at Murfreesborough and was mustered out at Fayetteville on March 28, 1815. A printed note on the Muster Roll says: "Each non-commissioned officer, musician, artificer, and private travelled 35 miles from Winchester, Franklin County, place of residence to Fayetteville, in Lincoln County, place where mustered into service." The curious item on the document is that he was paid $8.00 per month, and for the six months and two days that he served, he was paid $48.53 while the allowance pay for his horse, at 40 cents per day, was $73.20!

DIRECTORY OF FAMILY ASSOCIATIONS by Elizabeth Petty Bentley. 1991. Soft back, 8½x11, 318 pp. Order from: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, Md. 21202. $29.95

Have you ever wished you could find someone else who was looking for the same family you are? Perhaps you would like to read the research of other persons on this family. If so, this may be your lucky day. Variations of spelling are frequently grouped together in one family association, giving more options for research and suggesting other paths to follow.

PERSONAL NAME INDEX TO THE AUGUSTA CHRONICLE (AUGUSTA, GEORGIA) VOLUME III 1811-1820 Compiled by Alice O. Walker. 1991. Hard back, 5x7, 809 pp. Order from: Augusta-Richmond County Public Library, 902 Greene St., Augusta, GA 30901. $25.00 plus $2.50 P&H

The stated goal in producing this work is to help fill in the gaps left by Georgia's lost census and court records of "burned" counties. Gleaned from a newspaper and arranged alphabetically, this list is a reference to persons who lived in and around Richmond County, Georgia, from 1811 through 1820. Slaves are listed by the owner's surname and free blacks are so noted. Records from Burke, Chatham, Clarke, Columbia, Liberty, Lincoln, Screven, Warren, Washington, Wilkes and Wilkinson Counties in Georgia; and Abbeville, Barnwell, Edgefield and Pendleton Districts of South Carolina are included. Court notices, deaths, marriages, advertisements, post office lists, local news items and many other types of events are listed.

The library staff of Augusta-Richmond County Public Library will copy up to five items for researchers sending SASE and twenty-five cents per copy. Microfilm copies of the newspapers are available on inter-library loan.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR PERIOD BIBLE FAMILY AND MARRIAGE RECORDS VOLUME 12 by Chan Edmondson. 1992. Soft back, 5x8, 170 pp. Order from author, P.O. Box 141235, Dallas, TX 75214-1235. $15.00

The primary objective of this series is to abstract the birth, marriage and death records from the pension applications. The soldier's pension application usually contains information pertaining to his military service, whereas the widow's pension application contains more genealogical information. Therefore, the concentration of this book is directed to the applications of widows. The widow not only had to furnish proof of service, but also other information such as her name, age, residence, death date of husband, and marriage date and place. Lacking marriage proof, in some instances the birth date of their first child is supplied.

THE LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN MORTONS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS plus ANCESTORS AND RELATIVES From York Co., Pennsylvania; Mecklenburg Co., North Carolina; Blount Co., Tennessee; and Walker Co., Georgia -1731-1989- by Donna Morton Morgan. 1991. Hard back, 6x9, 265 pp. Indexed. Order from author, 2638 Ramsey Drive, New Orleans, LA 70131. $25.00 plus $2.50 P&H

Written in two parts, Donna Morgan has successfully combined humorous and poignant family tales with well documented records. Section I of her book starts with the murder of Joseph Washington Morton, her grandfather. She then flashes back to his birth in 1857 to encompass the entire Morton family of Lookout Mountain, Tennessee. Section II contains many family lines, some traced as many as ten generations. Mortons and their relatives from the four states mentioned in the sub-title are included.

YESTERDAY by Diana L. Mellen. 1991. Soft cover, 5x8, 324 pp. Full name index. Order from: Heritage Books, Inc., 1540 E. Pointer Ridge Place, Bowie, MD. 20716. $26.00 plus $3.00 P&H

The Hamptons in Henrico County, Virginia, and their migration west during the Revolutionary War, War of 1812 and the War Between the States, presents an interesting history lesson. Related lines are Longwith, Mabry, McCracken and Wells, chiefly in McMinn County in Tennessee. Another in the genre of justified margin, computer spaced books, this is an otherwise neatly presented chronicle of a family and the events surrounding them. The book contains a bibliography, photographs and reproduced documents.

REVOLUTIONARY ANCESTORS OF THE LOUISIANA SOCIETY OF THE NATIONAL SOCIETY OF The Daughters of the American Revolution 1895-1989 compiled by Mrs. Henry L. Ehrhardt. Hard cover, 6x9, 309 pp. Order from the compiler, 5712 Rhodes Avenue, New Orleans, LA 70131-3924. $25.00 plus $2.50 P&H

Listed in alphabetical order are the patriot ancestors of Louisiana DAR members from 1895-1989. Also given is the state of service and rank of each patriot and the name and DAR number of each member. There are over 10,800 records included.

SCOTS ON THE CHESAPEAKE, 1607-1830 Compiled by David Dobson. Hard cover, 6x9, 169 pp. Order from: Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc., 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $20.00 plus $2.50 P&H

There has been a Scottish element in the population of the Chesapeake since the foundation of Jamestown in 1607. This alphabetical listing attempts to bring together all available references to Scots in Virginia and Maryland from sources scattered throughout Great Britain and North America. In order to develop the information, research was carried out in major archives and libraries in Scotland, England, Canada and the United States, with emphasis on primary sources such as probate records, court records, indenture agreements, jail registers, family papers, contemporary newspapers and magazines, naturalization papers, Loyalist claims, church registers, militia papers, gravestone inscriptions, government documents and census returns.

The brief information given after each name includes the primary sources used, some marriages and other relationships. While the historic records of Virginia and Maryland contain substantial references to people bearing Scottish names, only those who can be positively identified as Scots or were highly likely to have been born in Scotland have been selected for inclusion in this book.

SUBSCRIBER BENEFITS INCLUDE

One free query annually of 50 words or less published in the magazine; paid queries or advertisements are not accepted for publication

Exchange privileges from the Society's Master Surname Index, a card file of ancestral information provided by subscribers; Self Addressed Stamped Envelope (SASE) required

GUIDELINES FOR QUERIES

Queries are published for subscribers only. Each subscriber is entitled to one free query of 50 words or less per subscription year. It may be convenient to forward a query with your subscription payment. Your query must:

1. be typed or printed plainly with no abbreviations; ask questions such as who, where, when
2. be submitted on a separate sheet of paper headed "Query"
3. have no more than fifty words
4. show your name and address on the sheet with your query
5. be received before 1 SEPTEMBER of a subscription year to assure publication during that year

GUIDELINES FOR SURNAME INDEX CARDS

Subscribers are invited to furnish vital statistics on ancestors from any locality for the Society's Master Surname File. Use only 3 x 5 inch cards (no other size fits the file). Include your name and address; put the current date at the top right corner of each card; please list names and birth dates of subject's children on the back of the index card. Please use the sample card format shown below.

Subscribers may request a search of the Surname Index File for ancestors and persons who could be researching the same name—only one family name for each request, please, and no more than one search request per month. A long SASE is essential for return of information in the file. Each card should include at least one date and one location (even if they are estimated) in addition to the surname and given name. You may want to keep a list of Index Cards you have submitted; and if there is a change in your address or information on any of your Surname Cards, you can send new cards with instructions to replace old cards. Index Cards are filed alphabetically by ancestor surname.
