OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

Summertime is the usual vacation and travel time for most of us, and genealogists are no exception to that assumption. However, we seem to be able to work in a quick trip no matter what the season when a hot lead begins to burn a little hotter, or when we hear of a source, not necessarily new, but heretofore unknown to us. Maybe we can give you a new clue with one of the opportunities on our calendar.

Do you know about the Archives of Appalachia at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City, Tennessee? If you had ancestors from that part of Tennessee, you might consider researching some of their collections. Recent accessions include the John Fain Anderson Papers which contain correspondence, newsclippings, papers and post-cards concerning East Tennessee during the late 1800s and early 1900s. They also house the Thomas G. Burton Collection of folk customs, folklore and folk music in East Tennessee. Even if your ancestor's name is not listed, the story of his life-style probably would be revealed. Address inquiries to Archives of Appalachia, ETSU The Sherrod Library, P.O. Box 22,450A, Johnson City, TN 37614-0002.

TGS subscriber Bobbie Zylstra has a novel idea for another kind of Archive; she calls it A Perpetual Working-Picture File, and she is collecting all kinds of pictures of her allied families. Her plan is to exchange copies of pictures and negatives which are already in her file, while collecting from others pictures of relatives which she does not already own. She hopes to be able to identify some unknown photos also. A few of the names in her family are: Arrington, Broom, Burke, Crouch, Davis, Fallis, Felkins, Hoag, Hogan, McAfee, Rachels, Rackley, Russell, Steele, Stone etc. Send her a SASE for details of her plan; Bobbie J. Zylstra, 712 E. Main, Everson, WA 98247-9528.

Family reunions are always a lot of fun; that's one place where it doesn't hurt if someone else "out-brags" you or tops your best story, because Great-Grandpa was your ancestor too! Here are opportunities for some of us.

FAMILY GATHERINGS

Prepared for publication by Mary Florence Peek Ray

THE JAMES B. PHELAN ESTATE PAPERS AND WILL

Found among the Estate Papers of James B. PHELAN, Sr. were interesting letters and documents expressing the loyalties of that Irish family in the regional affairs of their adopted country. The will and other papers were part of the Probate Court records [folder #1593, 1873] of the Memphis/Shelby County, Tennessee Archives. Interesting excerpts from some of the letters, the family line which stretches from Ireland to Memphis, Tennessee, and an abstract of the will are included.

The oldest letter in the file was written by Mrs. Eliza Jones Moore Phelan, wife of James Phelan, Sr. to her sister Mrs. Olivia Moore O'NEAL. It was dated two years after the birth of James B. Phelan, Jr.

"My dearest Sister,

Aberdeen, Miss., Apr 5th '58 [1858]

I have been intending for an age to write to you, & I deem no other apology necessary than to apprise you that my silence toward you, is never the result of forgetfulness or indifference. I do not believe a day ever passes over my head, that my thoughts do not wander away over the "Bear Creek" hills to the home of my dear precious Sister. Why is it, I often say to myself that relatives who love each other, can't as well settle in the same town or county, as hundreds of miles apart? If you & I could be divided but by one street, what a delight it would be, and with old Syd across the corner, it would render this earthly pilgrimage so Eden-like that I fear the Heavenly Canaan would not be so greatly longed after.

Mr. Phelan returned home in somewhat feeble health but has improved very much since he arrived. He told me about seeing you all & what a pleasant night he passed with you and Sis Let. . . .

My darling little Jamie had an attack of croup last night & is still quite hoarse, but I trust will not have a return of it to-night. I have been giving him Hive Syrup all [day] & I hope it will prevent a recurrence of the cough. He is sleeping sweetly & seems to breathe perfectly easy. . . . " [letter incomplete]

In an undated letter to his son, James Jr., who was staying with a Mr. ELLETT while attending school in Memphis, James Sr. expressed concern about the smallpox epidemic in the city. The following excerpt was found:

"Do not expose yourself in crowds, ask Mr. Ellett if he would not recommend that you quit school, to avoid a contact with boys so scattered about the city?

Katie will return with me--barring the smallpox. I expect to learn on Thursday; but cannot tell. You promised to write to me. I am sorry to see you so dull with the pen; and you indulge your dislike. If you will not compose for criticism, do so in secret only for your own eye. That will greatly improve you and soon enable you to develop the faculty of composition.

Remember me to Mr. Ellett & Mr. DAVIS. I miss the company of both of them, more than I am willing to declare. God bless you

Your aff. father, James Phelan"

Editor's note: James Jr. must have followed his father's advice since he later published three works. On Phillip Massinger, Doctoral Dissertation, 1878 from the University of Leipzig, Germany; History of Tennessee, 1888; and School History of Tennessee, 1889. He was also the president of the Memphis Avalanche, newspaper.

A one page letter, dated January 6, 1880, from James Phelan, Jr. to his brother denotes a rift between them. It is assumed the brother was George Richard.

"My dear Brother

I have just received your letter and answer instead of obeying your request to ignore it. If I were to give vent to my feelings, I should write what would permanently estrange us. I have no defenses to make against your charges, especially none against those which relate to my vanity. As regards my failure, I hope you are premature. I leave the decision to time. My only object in writing is to agree to your proposition never to refer to my future again. Until your last letter, I believed in the sincerity of your interest. I do not now, and when you give advice I should be looking for other things than kindly interest. My conceit is especially wounded that you should have mistaken my forbearance with a dying mother for obtuseness and stolidity. You have at last gone beyond bounds and from now on we occupy different relations.

Family all well. Sister Kate here. Have no idea for how long.

Your aff. bro. James Phelan"

On 6 Aug 1881, James Phelan, Jr. wrote again to his brother, George Richard.

"Dear Brother,

I returned to Memphis a few days ago to my regret a day after your departure. I wished to see you among other reasons to tell you of my engagement & approaching marriage. The young lady in question is Miss Mary EARLY, daughter of Dr. Robert Early of Lynchburg, Va. She lacks none of the requirements and will make no exception to the rule that we always marry the sweetest & liveliest women. You especially, I think will love her very much & I hope she may be able to gain some part of that brotherly affection that I tried to make my own . . . . I hope my marriage may tend slightly to restore our own relations to a little more pleasant footing.

Give Sis Julia my love and tell her I am sorry to have been so rude as to appropriate her satchel. I did not expect to remain away so long.

I was out at your house a few days ago & saw your little flock. I suppose Mrs. Hunt keeps you advised of how they fare. Also on my way from Va., I remained a few days in north Ala. with Cousin Nellie at the house of her father. She is improving, sent you many messages of affection & cheerfulness. Your own health I hope is improving also. Your confounded temper tho', I have ceased praying for . . . .

Very aff. your brother
James Phelan"

The Julia referred to in the letter was Julia HUNT Phelan, the wife of George.

A letter from Ellis Phelan, cousin of James Jr. included seven half-pages of genealogical data written by John Dennis Phelan, father of Dennis. That letter was dated January 14, 1890. Correspondence dated Feb 14, 1890 from John O'HART of Queen's University, Dublin, author of Irish Pedigrees, published in 1875, established the ancestor of the Phelan family line.

PHELAN FAMILY LINE

O'Hart wrote that the earliest records of the family date to the period of 1685-1688, when James II was king. Malachi Phelan was the brother of James Phelan,

BEDFORD COUNTY TENNESSEE DEEDS - 1808
Abstracted from Tennessee State Library and Archives Microfilm - Record Book A

Bedford County was cut from Rutherford County on 3 Dec 1807, and the Clerk, Thomas MOORE, was keeping his record book by 8 Feb 1808. Most of the land records had been in the legal process for twenty or more years, but when they lay within the new county they must be recorded there, therefore North Carolina and Tennessee land grants bear earlier dates. Deeds made prior to 1808 may refer to land as lying in Rutherford or Williamson County when actually it lies within the boundaries of the new county. Lincoln County was not cut from Bedford until 1809; therefore some of the land, referred to as lying in Bedford, then became a part of Lincoln. By 1836 Marshall and Coffee Counties had claimed some of Bedford, and in 1871 Moore County took another slice.

This area is described in the record book as Territory of the United States South of the River Ohio, Middle District; it is also in the Second Surveyor's District of Tennessee. North Carolina grants may refer to "our Middle District", and one 1808 record calls it Mero District. Thousands of acres in Bedford County were bought up by land speculators, absentee owners who never intended to settle there; but occasionally the survey of their grant refers to the Occupant Entry of someone who has already established a claim. Chain Carriers for the surveyor were frequently local young men, and there were enough permanent residents to warrant making a new county, so the abstract of Record Book A is important to persons researching the early Bedford County families.

In the following abstracts, all locations are in Tennessee and all persons are from Bedford County unless otherwise noted. Abbreviations used are: ack = acknowledged; A = acres; adj = adjoining/joins; beg. = beginning; B/S = Bill of Sale; C.C. = Chain Carriers; Co = County; P/A = Power of Attorney; pro = proven; R = Range; reg = registered; S = Section; trans = transferred; wit = witness.

33-2-1799 "To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, now sitting in Knoxville:

The Petition of John JACKSON humbly Sheweth - That a Search Warrant was issued by Matthew WALLACE one of the Justices assigned to keep the peace in Blount County to search the dwelling house of said Jackson, which said Warrant was granted without oath or affirmation as is required by Law in such Cases - in consequence of which the house of said Jackson was ransacked very much to the injury of said Jackson - Your Petitioner therefore prays that your honourable Body would take the Premises into Consideration, and remove said Matthew Wallace from the execution of his Office, or do whatever else in the premises to you may seem meet, so as to relieve the good Citizens of Blount County from the like abuse in future - & your Petitioner will pray - John Jackson"

34-2-1799 This petition from citizens of Sevier County was printed in "ANSEARCHIN'" NEWS Vol. 14, No. 4 (1967) with 182 signatures. Apparently one page was separated from the original document before the filming of this series as only 92 signatures are given herein. Comparison of our 1967 version with the current film version shows that most of the 92 filmed names appear on both lists, allowing for differences in interpretation of handwriting. However the following omissions or corrections seem important to note: Relph SHANE, Edmun? WILLREGE, Wilborn LUNDY Sr, J miah BARON, and Jese SSHEFFIR.

35-2-1799 Inhabitants of Tennessee, "seeing the undisciplined condition of the militia of this state", petition for recognition of the volunteer companies they have formed, and outfitted known as Volunteer Light Dragoons. VIRGINIA COUNTIES: THOSE RESULTING FROM VIRGINIA LEGISLATION by Morgan P. Robinson. 1992. (Reprint of 1916 edition) Hard cover. 283 pp. 6x9. Index. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $25.00 plus $2.50 S&H. (MD residents add 5% sales tax, MI residents add 4% sales tax).

Complete with maps, charts, index, and a "Genealogical" section, this is clearly an authoritative account of the origin of Virginia counties. There are at present only about 100 counties in Virginia, but at least 172 counties were created at one time or another by Virginia legislation. Some counties fell into Kentucky and West Virginia, some became extinct, merged with other counties or changed their names. Published originally as a Bulletin of the Virginia State Library, this book has the correct facts, backed up with documentary evidence and a series of maps delineating the evolution of Virginia counties up to 1775.

WILLIAM NORVELL (1746-1794) OF HANOVER CO., VA., HIS FOREBEARS AND DESCENDANTS. Compiled and published by Lucy Harrison Miller Baber with Co-compilers Sargent Ward Braden and Jaquelin Ambler Nicholas Harvey. 1992. Hard Cover. 8½x11. 216 pp. Full name Index. Order from author, Westminster Canterbury, #0503, V.E.S. Road, Lynchburg, VA 24503. $30.00 plus $3.00 S&H.

This is a family book devoted to William Norvell who died in 1794, his eight children and their descendants. The author includes references to Norvell forebears, outlines, charts, and some pictures. The numbering system is straight forward and there is a great deal of information provided. It is unfortunate that the quality of the printing is erratic with some pages very dark and some very grey, but all are legible. The verification of death dates with a sampler is a unique and interesting facet of this work.

A HISTORY OF THE CHURCH OF SAINT ANDREW by Jane W. Barnett. 1991. Hard Cover. 6x9. 126 pp. Full name Index. Order from the author, 827 South Tree, Collierville, TN 38017. $17.26 plus $2.50 S&H.

It is said that as we grow older we are less concerned with where we are going and like to look back to see where we have been or where we came from. Dedicated to the children of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Collierville, Tennessee, this is a lovely look back over the past 100 years of the evolution of the building and the people of the congregation. The family charts, anecdotes and pictures add great interest to this chronicle.

JACKSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE WPA RECORDS by James L. Douthat. 1991. Paper back with spiral binding. 8½x11. 97 pp. Indexed. Order from Mountain Press, 4503 Anderson Pike, P.O. Box 400, Signal Mountain, TN 37377. $20.00 plus $2.50 S&H.

Works Project Administration papers, copied from court house records and collected during the late 1930's and early 1940's, had not been previously published when found in an attic in Chattanooga. They should be of great value to those interested in Jackson County, Tennessee. Family records, obituaries, cemetery records and many others are published exactly as found.

THE A-Z GUIDE TO TRACING ANCESTORS IN BRITAIN by Pauline Saul & F.C. Markwell. Fourth Edition 1992. Soft Cover. 5½x8½. 256 pp. Indexed. Order from Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1001 N. Calvert St. Baltimore, MD 21202-3897. $17.95 plus $2.50 S&H.

Originally published by the Federation of Family History Societies in 1985, it was called "The Family Historian's Enquire Within." Arranged alphabetically, it contains definitions, explanations, bibliographies, sources, addresses, and signposts pointing to every conceivable topic that could be of interest to the family historian.

In addition to the basic glossary, many valuable appendices are included, as are explanations of those curious British terms one encounters in British research. What is the "Poor Law", Letters Patent, State Papers? What do the GRO and the CRO have in common? Why are market towns so important in your search for an elusive marriage record? With this book in your possession, answers to these questions and to hundreds of similar questions will be at your fingertips.

LEWIS COUNTY, TENNESSEE, WPA RECORDS Jessie Clinton, Typist. Soft back. 8½x11, 66 pp. Full name Index. Order from Mountain Press, P.O. Box 400, Signal Mountain, TN 37377-0400. $15.00 plus $2.50 S&H.

Many files were left over upon the ending of the Works Progress Administration project. This particular group from Lewis County came to light in an attic in Chattanooga and have been carefully typed from the original hand-written pages, complete with some phonetic spelling. Included are Bible Records, cemetery lists and letters written home during the War Between the States. Many family names familiar to Lewis County residents are found in this small book. Although the material is presented in a straight forward manner, there is great charm in the stories contained in some of the Bible records, the letters sent home by soldiers and the story of Meriwether Lewis' death.

THE DESCENDANTS OF JOHN TISDALE (1614-1675) Colonial Massachusetts by Robert L. Tisdale. 1981. Hard cover. 6x9, 237 pp. Full name Index. Order from the author, 5411 W. Willow Highway, Lansing, MI 48917. $17.00.

The Tisdale name is derived from "The Tees River and the dale lands of County Durhamshire in northern England." This family history begins with John Tisdale, who was baptised at Ripon in 1614, and continues through twelve generations. Fourteen hundred twelve direct descendants plus some seven hundred eighty-seven allied families are listed in the 4,140 name index. A colored illustration of the family crest adds interest and value to the book. The registered and numbered history will be autographed upon request.

THE HISTORY OF BELLE MEADE MANSION, PLANTATION, AND STUD by Ridley Wills, II. 1991. Hard Cover. 6x9. 383 pp. Order from Vanderbilt University Press, Box 1813-Sta. B, Nashville, TN 37235 $27.95

The story of Belle Meade - of the Harding and Jackson families that called it home - necessarily involves the countless lives of neighbors and houseguests, soldiers and civilians, statesmen and common citizens, prewar slaves and postwar workers. The events at Belle Meade reflected the larger events of Southern history taking place simultaneously. In telling the smaller story of one family, their home, and their plantation way of life, this book also tells the larger story, placing planter, mansion, plantation, and stud in a cultural-historical context of which Belle Meade was a highly reflective part.

MALONE FAMILY HISTORY Andrew Jackson Malone, John Wesley Malone and Their Descendants of Lincoln County, Tennessee, Madison County, Alabama, Oklahoma and Texas, 1840-1990 by Royleta C. Malone. 1991. Soft cover. 8½x11. 50 pp. Index. Order from author, 1097 Yarrow Lane, Salt Lake City, UT 83123. $10.00

The Malone brothers of the book title settled in Lincoln County, Tennessee in 1865, after both had served the Confederacy for Alabama. The book includes copies of their war records, pictures, newspaper articles, marriage licenses and histories of many of the family members. A numbered and dated ten page descendency chart is included.

MY FINDINGS - VOLUME II by Lillian Brown-Johnson. 1991. Hard cover. 8½x11. 327 pp. Full name Index. Order from author, 200 E. Webster, #1115, Madison, TN 37115. $40.00 plus $2.50 S&H.

Many of the families portrayed in this volume resided at one time or another in Bedford County, TN, where court house records are very scarce. Listed are over forty family patriots from the French and Indian War to Vietnam. Major families include: Adams, Brown, Chamberland, Coble, Cunningham, Dickson, Dixon, Galbreath, MacLean, McAdams, McKamie, Smith, Troxler, Wallace, Whitsett and others. The book is divided into family sections and includes many family photographs.

THE MAIDEN FAMILY OF VIRGINIA AND ALLIED FAMILIES 1623-1991 Aker, Alburtis, Butt, Carter, Fadely, Fulkerson, Grubb, Hagy, King, Landis, Lee, Scudder, Stewart, Underwood, Williamson - and Others by Sarah Finch Maiden Rollins. 1991. Hard back. 8½x11, 808 pp. Full name Index. Order from the author, 12715 Cobblestone, Houston, TX 77024. $50.00.

The author's 1985 New Year's resolution was to devote that year to "write up" both of her parents' lineage. That innocent resolution led her in many directions and this big beautiful, gold lettered book is the result. The families allied to the Maidens and named in the sub-title are given in detail. Some information is also supplied on the Bickley, Biemesderfer, Dale, Day, Davison, Heussler, Manje, Van Liew, Vigne and Warthman families. The book is pleasant and easy to read and includes approximately 150 pictures, illustrations and maps. There is a master 13-generation pedigree diagram tying all lines together, three-generation diagrams at the beginning of most chapters, footnotes, and a three thousand name index.

SAMUEL MCGUIRE (1792-1858) OF ST. CLAIR COUNTY, ILLINOIS, AND DESCENDANTS by Lyle Keith Williams. 1991. Soft cover. 8½x11. 153 pp. Full name Index. Order from the author, 5000 Rock River Drive, Ft. Worth, TX 76103. $17.95 prepaid.

Samuel McGuire was born in Pennsylvania, migrated to Illinois from Kentucky and married Nephany (Jackson) Farris, with whom he had eight children. This genealogy was written primarily for the benefit of their descendants. There are family outlines, stories and clearly reproduced pictures. Mr. Williams has done an excellent job of presenting the descendants of Samuel McGuire, any one of which would probably treasure this book.

UNLOCKING THE SECRETS IN OLD PHOTOGRAPHS by Karen Frisch-Ripley. 1991. Soft cover. 5½x8½. 202 pp. Indexed. Order from Ancestry, Inc., Dept. SRV, P.O. Box 538, Salt Lake City, UT 84110. $12.95. plus $4.00 S&H.

Few objects possess the ability to transcend time as old photographs do. They are our single, most immediate link to the past, outliving memory and closing the distance of years. Though the streets still remain, many of the houses in which our ancestors resided have fallen victim to time. Photographs alone have endured. The challenge of identifying old family photographs is an intriguing puzzle that can be solved by following certain steps. Not only are these steps outlined in clear, concise detail, but much valuable information is given for the labeling and care of modern photographs. This is an interesting and valuable resource, well presented by an experienced genealogist.

1850 CENSUS OF ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA: A Genealogical Compilation of All Six Schedules by Jo White Linn, C.G., C.G.L. 1992. Soft cover. 8½x11. Surname Index, 158 pp. Order from Rowan County Register, P.O. Box 1948, Salisbury, NC 28145-1948. $26.00 postpaid. North Carolina residents add 6% sales tax unless exempt).

Selected statistics of genealogical value from the slave, agriculture, and manufacturing schedules are included with the household as shown in the population schedule. Editor's notes also include marriage bonds, parentage, citations of wills, and other details for many households. This format was selected because the editor would prefer to have all the information with the household when she is using the census rather than looking through six schedules separately. One could very quickly get spoiled with this system - would that it be available for all census!

The mortality schedule is presented separately along with some death dates from the Carolina Watchman and cemetery records. A description of each of the special schedules follows the population and mortality schedules.

A MARTIN FAMILY SAGA by Reta M. Evans. 1992. Hardbound. 6x9. 448 pp. Full Name Index. Order from author, 5605 Westcreek Drive, Fort Worth, TX 76133-2246. $39.00 postpaid.

A desk-top family reference for current and future generations, this newly published book is the history of James Martin and Sarah Cunningham of Warren County, Tennessee, and their descendants (1794-1991). Included are these allied families: Burnett, Dodson, Killingsworth, Lewis, Manire, Scoggin, Shipley, Stanley and Woodlee. Large, clear print, a generous supply of clearly printed pictures and an efficient and easily understood numbering system make this book a joy to use.

THE TENNESSEE GENEALOGICAL MAGAZINE

“Ansearchin” News

SUBSCRIBER BENEFITS INCLUDE

One free query annually of 50 words or less published in the magazine; paid queries or advertisements are not accepted for publication

Exchange privileges from the Society's Master Surname Index, a card file of ancestral information provided by subscribers; Self Addressed Stamped Envelope (SASE) required

GUIDELINES FOR QUERIES

Queries are published for subscribers only. Each subscriber is entitled to one free query of 50 words or less per subscription year. It may be convenient to forward a query with your subscription payment. Your query must:

1. be typed or printed plainly with no abbreviations; ask questions such as who, where, when
2. be submitted on a separate sheet of paper headed “Query”
3. have no more than fifty words
4. show your name and address on the sheet with your query
5. be received before 1 SEPTEMBER of a subscription year to assure publication during that year

GUIDELINES FOR SURNAME INDEX CARDS

Subscribers are invited to furnish vital statistics on ancestors from any locality for the Society's Master Surname File. Use only 3 x 5 inch cards (no other size fits the file). Include your name and address; put the current date at the top right corner of each card; please list names and birth dates of subject's children on the back of the index card. Please use the sample card format shown below.

Subscribers may request a search of the Surname Index File for ancestors and persons who could be researching the same name—only one family name for each request, please, and no more than one search request per month. A long SASE is essential for return of information in the file. Each card should include at least one date and one location (even if they are estimated) in addition to the surname and given name. You may want to keep a list of Index Cards you have submitted; and if there is a change in your address or information on any of your Surname Cards, you can send new cards with instructions to replace old cards. Index Cards are filed alphabetically by ancestor surname.
